

PRIZES AT SAGES 2025, DURBAN

Best Oral presentation 1st prize

Simon Veenstra

Groote Schuur Hospital and University of Cape Town

Outcomes of patients receiving infliximab rescue therapy in acute severe ulcerative colitis in a South African tertiary centre.

Best Oral presentation 2nd prize

Nasief van der Schyff

Groote Schuur Hospital and University of Cape Town

Physiological oesophageal testing for GORD: a 10-year review from Groote Schuur Hospital, South Africa.

Best Oral presentation 3rd prize

Muaz Moosa

Groote Schuur Hospital and University of Cape Town

Endoscopic practices in inflammatory bowel disease: a preliminary analysis from a tertiary centre.

Best case review

Ibrahim Mohammed

Charlotte Maxeke Johannesburg Academic Hospital and Wits University

Endoscopic Ultrasound Features of Gastrointestinal Stromal Tumours and correlations with pathology finding: A Case Series

SAGES / Aspen Research Scholarship (R100 000)

Dr Desiree Moodley

Tygerberg Hospital & Stellenbosch University

Prevalence of Metabolic-dysfunction associated steatotic liver disease in patients with Inflammatory Bowel Disease at a tertiary centre – a pilot study

Camagu Potelwa accepting the prize for Simon Veenstra

Ibrahim Mohammed

Nasief van der Schyff

Yaaseen Sungay accepting the Aspen scholarship on behalf of Desiree Moodley

Ernst Fredericks with the prizewinners

Handover of SAGES 'gong' to VG Naidoo, incoming SAGES president

Sandie Thomson, MC of the congress dinner, accepting a gift from VG Naidoo, new SAGES President